The opportunities in the field of aging are endless!

Please join us at one or all of our events to learn more about issues in aging, career opportunities, and networking with St. Louis professionals. All events are free and open to anyone interested in careers in aging.

Tuesday, April 7 | Lunch with a Gerontology Professional
12:30-1:30 pm, Washington University Danforth Campus, Goldfarb Hall, Room 132
Opportunity to talk with a diverse group of professionals working in fields relevant to aging and older adults in small groups over lunch. Lunch will be provided for attendees. Space is limited, registration is required.

Wednesday, April 8 | Screening of Gen Silent
7:00-9pm, University of Missouri-St. Louis South Campus, Bellerive Hall Chapel
Film screening and panel discussion highlighting important issues for LGBT older adults, including discrimination by caregivers, and opportunities for attendees to get involved. Food and beverages will be provided. Registration is requested.

Thursday, April 9 | Chat with Alumni in the Aging Field
11am-1pm, Lindenwood University, Spellman Center
Stop by the Spellman Center to connect with Lindenwood Gerontology alumni currently working in the field. Look for the Careers in Aging Week information table and stop by anytime between 11am and 1pm. No registration needed.

Visit publichealth.wustl.edu/aging to register for events.

St. Louis Careers in Aging Week Cospromors:
Washington University's Harvey A. Friedman Center for Aging at the Institute for Public Health & Aging in Graduate Education at the Brown School, University of Missouri-St. Louis's Gerontology Program & College of Nursing, Saint Louis University's School of Social Work, and Lindenwood University Gerontology Program. Funding support for film screening provided by Gerontological Society of America, Association for Gerontology in Higher Education, & National Center on Gerontological Social Work Excellence.